

FISH SNARE

A live minnow is fastened to the end of the stick and the rattan noose is opened. The struggles of the captive fish soon attract others. When one enters the noose the fisherman quickly draws the rattan taut. Several fish are often taken from a single pool by this method.

BAGOBO

Southern Mindanao, Philippine Islands

ROBERT F. CUMMINGS EXPEDITION

F. C. COLE, COLLECTOR

129183